

OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE

Bigfoot Endurance and Rip It Events Team Up for Trail Race at Rockburn Park.

The inaugural Bigfoot Endurance 5 & 10 Mile Trail Race will be held Sunday, March 1, 2020. The race consists of an individual 5 mile, 10 mile and a 2-person 10 mile relay option. The race will be staged at Rockburn Park in Elkridge, Maryland, which is known for its natural trails, bike paths and frisbee golf course. The run course is relatively flat in elevation and is perfect for both beginners and experienced runners.

A portion of the race proceeds will benefit Bigfoot Endurance, a nonprofit organization that raises money and awareness for Parkinson's research. To learn more about Bigfoot Endurance, visit www.bigfootendurance.com.

"We're thrilled to team up with Rip It Events and we're excited for the opportunity to raise money and awareness for our cause by encouraging people in the community to get outside, be active, and celebrate the day," said Bigfoot Endurance founder, Evan Calvert.

"We're looking forward to growing this event with Bigfoot Endurance," said Danny Serpico, co-founder of Rip It Events. "We share their passion for fighting Parkinson's and we hope this event increases awareness for their cause."

Online registration for the Bigfoot Endurance 5 & 10 Mile Trail Race will open on Friday, November 22, 2019. A special low registration fee will be available for 72 hours. For more information about this event and to register, visit www.ripitevents.com/bigfootendurancerace.
